Anne:

Wow! Our Snowman looks great! Let's name him Kirby.

Judy:

Here's some coal. I'll make his mouth with it.

Kirby:

No way! Make my mouth out of jelly beans!

Anne/Judy: Kirby can talk!

Kirby: I'm cold. Get me a nice wool coat.

Anne: You look real nice, Kirby. (Holds up a mirror) See?

Kirby: Bring me a motorcycle helmet! (pause) Does your dad have a green silk tie?

Judy: I'll have to go and look.

Kirby: Hurry up! See if you can find some mittens too!

Judy: This snowman is driving me crazy!

Anne: I can't find a helmet. Here's an old birthday hat.

Kirby: Well, OK. Put it on me. I gotta protect my head from the sun.

Judy: I found everything you want. We have to go to lunch.

Kirby: You sure you don't want to stay and play for a little bit.

Anne: Well Ok. But we have to make it quick.

Judy: Lets play "I spy."

Anne: That's a great Idea. :

Kirby: I spy with my eye with something that is frozen.

Judy/Anne: Hmmmmm as look around.

They notice the frozen pond in the park.

Anne: Is it the pond?

Kirby: Nope

Judy: Hmmmm... I'm confused. Is it the bird house?

Kirby: Nope.

Anne: The snow bank?

Kirby: Nope

Judy: The Car!

Kirby: Nope

Anne: Ugh... this is driving me crazy....

Judy: Mom is really yelling. Its time for lunch. Sorry Kirby, maybe we can finish this later.

Kirby: I'm hungry, too. I'll have a peanut butter, jello, and green bean sandwich. Hurry! The sun is coming out.

Anne: If you say so!

Kirby: One hour later, Judy and Anne returned. By then, the sun had warmed my surroundings.
Judy: Kirby's gone! Just the clothes are left!

Anne: Maybe he found out we made him a tuna fish sandwich. Then he ran away.
